THE BUSINESS IN ONE PARAGRAPH

A textile showroom sells the same design in many sizes and colours, in heavy seasonal waves (festivals, weddings, summer). The owner thinks in "design + size + colour", not in single products — so billing, stock and discounts must understand variants and the sales floor must stay fast on peak days.

A DAY IN YOUR SHOP · THE WORKFLOW WE BUILD AROUND

- 1 Purchase from supplier or weaver, enter with design, size and colour
- 2 Print barcode labels for every size-colour variant
- 3 Customer picks items; salesman is tagged to the bill
- 4 Festival offers, item discounts and exchange applied at billing
- 5 Bill saved: cash, UPI, card or part-credit for regular customers
- 6 Season-end stock check and clearance of slow movers

WHERE GENERIC SOFTWARE FAILS YOU

Variants get mixed up

One design in 6 sizes and 5 colours is 30 separate stocks. Generic software shows it as one item.

Festival rush slows billing

Peak days need quick scanning, offers and salesman tagging without any delay at the counter.

Dead stock stays hidden

Without ageing reports, unsold designs pile up until the season is over.

Our approach: we map this workflow first, then design every screen, rule and report around it — nothing extra, nothing missing.
